A. C. AND MARIA LUKE HATCH

Abram Chase Hatch was born December 14, 1856, in Lehi, son of Abram and Permelia Jane Lott Hatch. He married Maria Luke, with whom he had three sons and one daughter, Abram Chase, Jr., Henry Ray, Sumner and Kate (Mrs. George) Murdock. After the death of his first wife he married Elizabeth Nelson. He died in Heber on March 23, 1932.

Known to everyone as "Hete," A. C. Hatch was a prominent cattle, attorney and judge of the Fourth Judicial District. He came to Heber with his family in December, 1867, and remained in the valley until his death, with the exception of a few years spent in Ashley Valley, where he managed the family's extensive horse and cattle ranches. While on the ranches he studied law and continued his studies in the office of William Buys. He successfully passed the bar in 1892 and practiced in Heber. He was prominent in political and civic developments in the area, and when Utah became a state, in 1896, was appointed the first acting judge of the Fourth Judicial District by Gov. Heber M. Wells. He also served a term in the State Legislature, was a member of the city council, justice of the peace, and county attorney. "Hete" was jovial and steadfast as a friend, sympathetic yet firm. It was often said of him, "He makes an ideal judge."

Maria, his wife, was an early graduate of the University of Deseret, later the University of Utah, and was known as an adoring and helpful wife.
